CHAPTER 491.

AN ACT to repeal and recreate 192.20 of the statutes, relating to protection of certain livestock while in transportation.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

192.20 of the statutes is repealed and recreated to read:

192.20 SHIPMENT OF LIVE STOCK. Between November 15 and March 15 no shipper shall transport any live stock unless a reasonable amount of dry bedding is placed in the car, truck, or other shipping facility prior to the loading of the live stock. During the same period no shipper shall transport any live calves weighing under 350 pounds or horses of any description unless such animals are protected from the elements by material such as paper on the sides of the cars or trucks to a height of 4 feet or not to exceed two-thirds of the open section. Ventilated, closed sides shall be deemed sufficient protection.

Approved August 8, 1949.
